

CLS Enterprises of Lockport, Inc.

Privacy Policy

CLS Enterprises respects the rights and privacy of our clients and visitors to our website. CLS strives to ensure utilization of appropriate facilities and systems to protect against unauthorized access to, or corruption of, the data we collect, maintain and disseminate. We use various identity verification methods to determine the accurate identity of every client or consumer making a request. We employ security procedures for handling consumer/ client information, as well as maintaining physical security and limiting access to our facilities in order to safeguard information we collect, maintain and disseminate.

As a client of CLS Enterprises you may provide us with certain information, such as name, address, e-mail address, phone numbers, social security number, date of birth and other information that may be required during the account set-up process. During the process of running background inquiries, additional information may be provided regarding similar information specific to your employees or applicants.

CLS may outsource some tasks (including the operation of certain website functions that require access to the information you supplied to us online) and also disclose personal information when required by law, or in the reasonable belief that such action is required to comply with the law or legal process.

We protect your personal information by limiting access to records to a limited number of people at our organization who have specific access rights. All of our agents undergo a background investigation prior to be cleared to obtain such access. When a client places an order, we offer the use of a secured server to further protect the integrity of the entire process. CLS Enterprises does not sell or provide our client's personal information for marketing purposes.

Use of our website and services constitutes acknowledgement and acceptance of the safeguards outlined in this policy.
